The Ninety-Nines, Inc.

Northwest Section Fall Meeting
Hosted by the Greater Seattle, Western Washington, and Mt. Tahoma Chapters

Great events and tours await the 99's and guests attending the NW Section Annual Conference on September 13 and 14, 2024.

Friday afternoon, September 13, 2024

The Squaxin Indian Nation will provide a boat ride to Squaxin Island followed by a tribal program and salmon bake.

Additional reservation information including the fee will follow. There will be a limit on numbers for the tour.

Saturday, September 14, 2024

Our keynote speaker will be Amy Hoover, PHD, CFII, Founder and Owner of Canyon Flying and author. Amy is a Professor at Central Washington University and was awarded the FAA National Flight Instructor of the Year in 2022. A NTSB presentation will also given by our very own Kristyn Blocher, Mt. Tahoma chairman.

Saturday Afternoon Tours:

Helicopters based at OLM will be demonstrating Air and Ground Critical Care medical transport serving the Pacific Northwest.

The new DNR Aerial Firefighting Airbase for Western Washington Response, based in Olympia, OLM, will provide a tour and demonstration of this critical Natural Resource service.

Saturday Banquet:

This event will be held in the Olympia Air Museum providing an opportunity to view all the planes on display. The banquet will be followed by a panel discussion on the topic of "The State of Aviation Industry." This panel will be featuring pilots and others in various positions within the industry.

The hotel is located close to the Farmers Market, a Japanese Garden (free), the state capital and grounds, and shopping.

Please bring a silent auction item to sell for the support of the NW Section 99's scholarship fund. Contact Fran Postma at (253)-691-6296 or franpostmanew@gmail.com.
